Promoting British Values at Maney Hill Primary School

In accordance with The Department for Education we aim to actively promote the fundamental British values to ensure young people leave school prepared for life in modern Britain.

The Key Values are:

- democracy
- rule of law
- individual liberty
- mutual respect
- tolerance of those of different faiths and beliefs

The Government set out its definition of British Values in the 2024 Prevent Duty Guidance. At Maney Hill Primary School these values are reinforced regularly in the following ways:

Democracy

Each year the children decide upon their class rules and the rights associated with these. We have a School Council which meets regularly to discuss issues raised from classes. The Council is able to effect change within the school. Children have an annual questionnaire where they are able to put forward their views about the school.

The Rule of Law

The importance of laws, whether they be those that govern the class, the school, or the country, are consistently reinforced at Maney Hill Primary School. Pupils are taught from an early age the rules of the school. There are our class rules, playground rules and e-safety procedures. Pupils are taught the value and reasons behind rules and laws, that they govern and protect us, the responsibilities that this involves and the consequences when laws are broken. Visits from authorities such as the Police and Fire Service help reinforce this message.

Individual Liberty

At Maney Hill Primary School, pupils are actively encouraged to make choices, knowing that they are in a safe and supportive environment. As a school we educate and provide boundaries for young pupils to make informed choices, through a safe environment and an empowering education. Pupils are encouraged to know, understand and exercise their rights and personal freedoms and advised how to exercise these safely, for example through our e-safety and RSHE lessons.

Mutual Respect

Mutual respect is at the heart of our values. Children learn that their behaviours have an effect on their own rights and those of others. All members of the school community treat each other with respect.

Tolerance of those of Different Faiths and Beliefs

Maney Hill Primary School is a diverse school. We actively promote diversity through our celebrations of different faiths and cultures. Religious Education lessons and RSHE lessons reinforce messages of tolerance and respect for others. Members of different faiths and religions are encouraged to share their knowledge to enhance learning within classes and the school. The children visit places of worship that are important to different faiths.
